4 Collingwood Avenue Flinders Park SA

3 1 1

This 1948 solid double brick family home has been fully renovated & updated with every convenience you need. The home is perfect for the professional couple, small family, retiree or investor with no more to do but just move in & enjoy. From opening the front door you will notice this home has had all the hard work done for you - with floating floorboards, savvy new bathroom & brand new kitchen. The home owners had an ideal canvas to work from with its high ceilings, ornate ceilings roses & the classic bungalow style stone fronted exterior of the home with its large porch, character windows & decorative front door.

There are countless highlights in this home but you can't go past the main bathroom boasting wall hung vanity, frameless shower screen, feature window, quality
