481 Henley Beach Road Lockleys SA

4 2 2

Set back from Henley Beach Road on a recessed road, this colonial-style brick and tile home on a massive 1006m<sup>2</sup> allotment borders the River Torrens Linear Park Trail.

Developers and home renovators will love the potential this property displays just a stone's throw from Kooyonga golf course, Lockleys Primary School and the airport. It is a few minutes' drive to the sensational shores of Henley Beach and the lively restaurant scene at Henley Square, while being a handy seven kilometres from the city.

The original four bedroom home built in 1954 has several updates combined with conversation-worthy retro features such as wood panelling, slate flooring and raked ceilings.

The kitchen and bathroom are neat and tidy but primarily untouched except for an updated freestanding oven,
