

35 Pine Lodge Crescent Grange SA

2 2 2

Anyone up for a round of golf? This solid brick home built in 1977 actually boasts a golf course in the backyard, well not quite - you do need to open the back gate to set foot onto the beautiful Grange golf course.

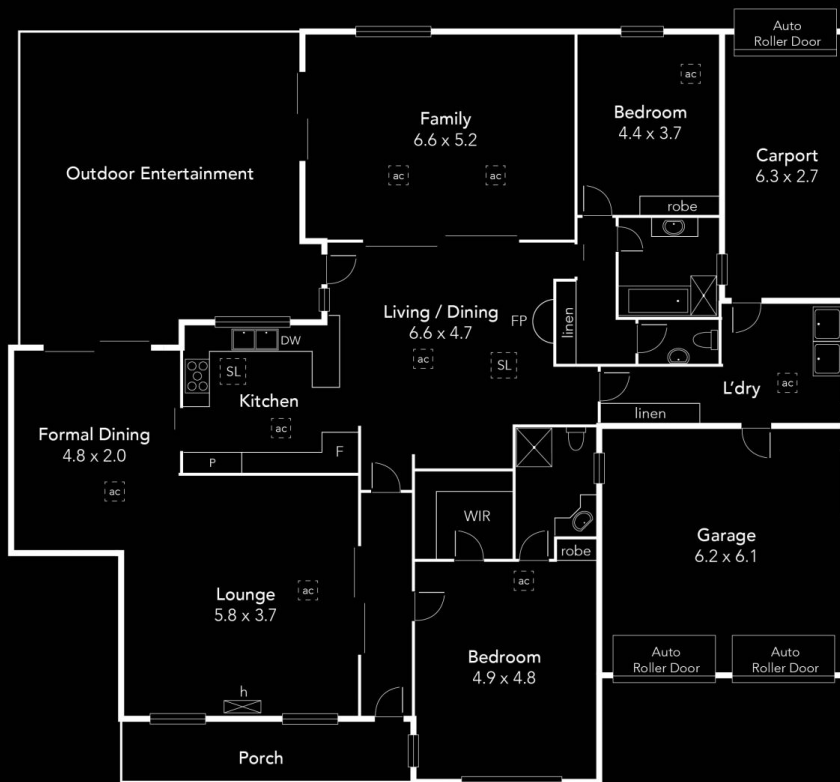

The rear carport with roller door is where your golf buggy will live, and the outdoor entertaining area is the perfect spot in which to relax with a cool drink after your round. Better yet, during international tournaments at Grange Golf Club you can sit comfortably inside or on the rear patio and watch some of the world's best men and women golfers striding down the fairway.

For the non-golfing enthusiasts in the family, this home has much to offer you too. Multiple living areas include a large family room with patio access, a central kitchen from which extends a formal dining area, a large lounge and a casual
