12 Beltana Street Flinders Park SA

3 1 1

Located in a quiet street in popular Flinders Park, this charming 3-bedroom Colonial home offers loads of potential and strong capital growth. Simply move in or renovate, the choice is yours.

Built in 1966 and set on 585sqm, the solid double-brick home has a warm, cosy feel with neutral colour tones and wooden floorboards throughout the bedrooms and lounge. The large north-facing living area has an original gas fireplace and a large window that overlooks the established front garden.

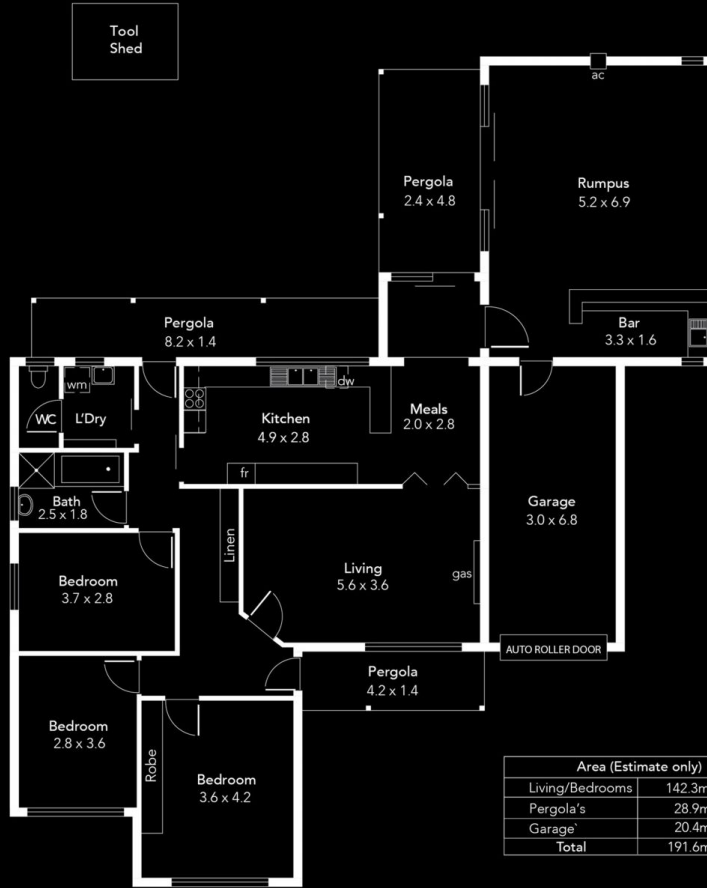

Leading from the living area is the casual dining area and original kitchen with Fisher & Pykel double draw dishwasher. A skylight above the breakfast bar lets in plenty of natural light as does the large window at the sink that overlooks the pretty backyard.
